I'm an award-winning bilingual film and Tv Editor, based in London since 1999 with over fifteen years experience across documentaries, scripted drama and commercials.

I'm an intuitive and highly collaborative editor, approaching each project with a storyteller's eye, I'm adaptable and fast with a deep understanding of workflow, garnered from my years running a boutique post house in London Shoreditch.

This, coupled with my long-time passion for fictionalised drama, makes me a versatile collaborator, attentive to detail, and extremely self organised and independent.

"What a pleasure it is working with Marco - he's quick, talented and delightfully collaborative. He instinctively understands how to construct drama and knows how to weave it with documentary without losing tension. He's great with music and has enough visual tricks up his sleeve to keep you gripped. He's always open to ideas, never precious or defensive - an absolute delight."

David McNab
Executive Producer
World Media Rights Productions
(Primetime Emmy Award Nominee)

"Working with Marco on a 6-month long edit for Discovery has been fantastic. He's very fast, creative, and incredibly diligent and hard working - all of which has taken any stress out of the project and made it a very enjoyable working environment! He's got a great ear for music and has a very collaborative approach which it makes it a pleasure to work through any story twists and turns and respond to feedback notes. I hope to work with Marco again very soon!"

Freya Ward Smith
Producer Director

"Not only does Marco have a masterful sense of dramatic visual storytelling he's an absolute joy to work with. He's a quick worker with impeccable taste in music and I will most definitely edit with him on my next project!"

Alice Smith
Producer Director

"I was moved by the scene as a boy, it was like seeing myself as it happened!
Well done!"
